

50 & BETTER

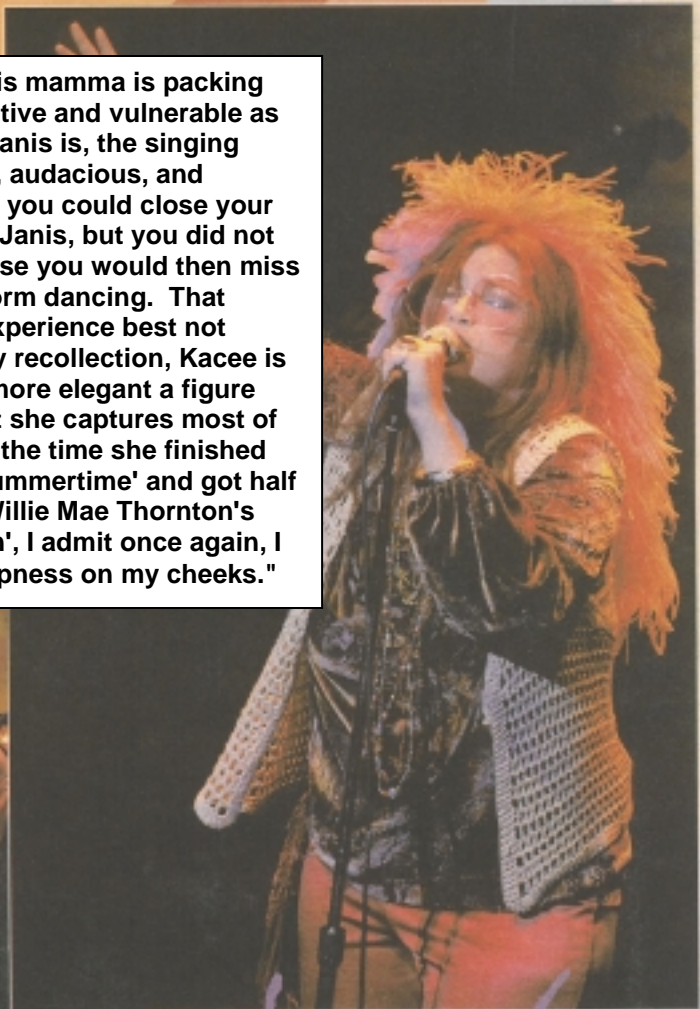

March 2007

KANSAS CITY

For Those ^Bold Enough to Know What They Want

"Look out! This mamma is packing heat...As sensitive and vulnerable as the speaking Janis is, the singing Janis is saucy, audacious, and sensual... Now you could close your eyes and hear Janis, but you did not want to, because you would then miss Kacee's free form dancing. That would be an experience best not missed. To my recollection, Kacee is considerably more elegant a figure than Janis, but she captures most of Janis' fire. By the time she finished Gershwin's 'Summertime' and got half way through Willie Mae Thornton's 'Ball and Chain', I admit once again, I had great dampness on my cheeks."

Love, Janis

If you loved Janis Joplin, if you miss the 60's, or if you missed the 60's altogether, you must see this offering.